Sunday 9th October 2.00 pm Are you in school year 3 or above. Our Director of Music, Paul Dewhurst would love you to join the Bridlington Priory Choir. Why not come to the Priory for our taster afternoon of singing, activities and fun at Bridlington Priory. Parents and friends are welcome to come at 5.00pm for a short performance.

Monday 10th October 7.30pm Hope Housing's AGM at Emmanuel Church please join them for a full update on the work. A letter from Rev Richard Hare regarding Hope Housing and the need for volunteers is available at the back of church.

New Stewards Keeping the Priory open daily for visitors, is such important work. Two stewards are on duty at a time & you don't need to know the history of the Priory, just to have a welcoming smile. We need one person to be on duty Mondays 11am-1pm & another one for Tuesdays 1-3pm. Please talk to Helen Hughes for further details. All new volunteers will need to complete the Bridlington Priory volunteer form & safeguarding requirements.

Luncheon Club re Opens on 12th October join us in the Church Rooms at 12:00 pm for a lovely meal and friendly company all for £4.00

If you are a UK taxpayer, please consider donating by Gift Aid either online, via our digital collection plate or our blue envelope scheme.
