Priory Website the PCC have agreed that the Priory website needs to be made more attractive, easier to navigate and more suitable to view on mobile devices. The text will be used, unchanged, in the new format. If you maintain sections of the website, please check that these are accurate. To make the website more attractive we will need high resolution images. If you have any photos you wish to accompany a section, please send them (with a suitable title) to lynnekoker@gmail.com. If people are shown, please ensure they are happy to have it published in this way. A selection of general views will also be useful. No changes will be made until the new Rector is in post and he has had a chance to review them.
