Chelmsford25 Our choir this year are hoping to go on a residential trip to sing at Chelmsford Cathedral. They have begun their fundraising. There is a notice sheet at the back of church giving details of the fundraising events taking place, but for more details and if you would like to support the choir in their fundraising, please see our Director of music, Paul Dewhurst, or, one of our churchwardens, Yvonne Kurvits.

Help needed: Our very popular Wednesday lunch club which caters for up to 40 people every week in our Parish church rooms, needs a couple of more helpers, to help if possible with the preparing of vegetables and to help generally. If you are free to volunteer, maybe once per month or more, to help at this very worthwhile and rewarding local community event then do be in touch with Revd Neil.

Cake stall & refreshments Saturday 15th Feb 10am-Noon- Do come and long and maybe also invite others to this church fundraising and social event. Donations of cakes, buns and also savoury bakes are always much appreciated on the day.

Parish Magazine-Our February Parish magazine is now published and is at the back of church. At just £1 it contains; news, articles, and so much more.

Drawn to Imperfection Art exhibition 7th-13th March- this exciting new exhibition at The Priory, which will be free for all visitors, is made up of 21 large portraits of characters from the Bible. There are some posters about the exhibition please do take one if you know of place that might be able to display it.

Are you a tax payer? Could you gift aid your donation today? Please use and complete the blue envelopes on the pews and from the back of church with your donation inside. If you do the church receives 25p extra for every £1 you donate, at no extra cost to yourself.
