Welcomers/stewards needed. We have a great team of volunteers who make it possible for the church to be open throughout the week for visitors and also for the shop to be open for their visit. We need a few more people to help with this much valued part of our life here at Bridlington Priory. Can you spare a couple of hours per week to welcome visitors, alongside another volunteer?

Chelmsford25 Our choir this year are hoping to go on a residential trip to sing at Chelmsford Cathedral. They have begun their fundraising. There is a notice sheet at the back of church giving details of the fundraising events taking place, but for more details and if you would like to support the choir in their fundraising, please see our Director of music, Paul Dewhurst, or, one of our churchwardens, Yvonne Kurvits.

Drawn to Imperfection Art exhibition 7th-13th March- this exciting new exhibition at The Priory, which will be free for all visitors, is made up of 21 large portraits of characters from the Bible. There are some posters at the back of church about the exhibition, please do take one if you know of place that might be able to display it.

Are you a tax payer? Could you gift aid your donation today? Please use and complete the blue envelopes on the pews and from the back of church with your donation inside. If you do the church receives 25p extra for every £1 you donate, at no extra cost to yourself.
