All soul service Sunday 2nd November 4pm A special church service in which we remember those we continue to love but see no more. All are welcome.

Prayers for Healing-Immediately after the 10.30am service today in St John's chapel the ministry of prayers for healing is available. For anyone who would like to go to ask for prayers for healing for themselves or for someone else.

Offertory envelopes and regular giving through bank: Our treasurer Paul Koker will be back at the back of church after each of our services today, as he has the new offertory envelopes to distribute to those who currently have them. He also has envelopes for those who would like to have a pack and also details for those who might like to begin their regular offertory giving through their back. Thank you for all who give regularly to the church here at Bridlington Priory in response to all that we receive from God and to support our work and mission as a church.

Archbishop of York filming his Advent service at Bridlington Priory On Thursday 30th October the Archbishop of York will be here at Bridlington Priory filming his national Advent service. All are invited to come along and be part of the congregation. Our choir will also be singing. The filming begins with the congregational and choir singing from 2pm.

Are you a tax payer? Could you gift aid your donation today? Please use and complete the blue envelopes on the pews and from the back of church with your donation inside. If you do, the church then receives 25p extra for every £1 you donate, at no extra cost to yourself.
