Creation tide (Season of creation) During the month of September as a church we shall be celebrating creationtide. A time to give thanks for all of the wonderful things that are part of creation and also how we might look after our environment and the world around us. There is a new display at the font.

Environmental echo church group: Are you interested in environmental and ecological issues? If you are, then you might like to be involved in a new church group that is being formed. The group, which will meet initially every three months, led by Revd Neil, and will discuss how we as a church family might try to look after our environment and ecosystem around us..
