For the family and friends of those who have died in recent days and for those whose anniversary of death occurs at this time.

Looking after our Living churchyard. On Tuesday afternoons we have a team of volunteers who care for the environment of our churchyard. This also includes our beautiful lavender labyrinth. If you haven't yet had the chance to have a look then why not take a stroll around. If you might be interested in helping on a Tuesday afternoon, to not only keep the churchyard looking well, but also creating an environment for nature to flourish, then do have a word with Helen Hughes.

Environmental echo church group: Are you interested in environmental and ecological issues? If you are, then you might like to be involved in a new church group that is being formed. The group, which will meet initially every three months, led by Revd Neil, will discuss how we as a church family might try to care for our environment and ecosystems around us.

Donations of food. Did you know that donations of nonperishable food can be put in the box near to the main door? These donations are then taken monthly across Bridlington to foodbanks and those who provide much needed support to people in need in our town.

Time of the beginning of our Sunday evening church service: From (and including) the 25th October, the time of the beginning of the Sunday evening church service will be changing from 6.30pm to 5.30pm.

Sunday 4th October Harvest festival-produce brought in celebration of harvest can be put in front of the altar before the church service starts-this will then be distributed to foodbanks etc in Bridlington.

Saturday 17th October 7pm Silent film show with organist. Back by popular demand is Donald MacKenzie (Odeon Leicester Square, London) to play the Priory organ on the showing of the 1926 comedy, starring Buster Keaton, The General. Tickets £12.

Thursday 22nd October 7pm Bygone Bridlington Old Town Trail. An illustrated talk in church by John Walker. Entry is free, with opportunity to make donations at the end.

Are you a tax payer? Could you gift aid your donation today? Please use and complete the blue envelopes on the pews and from the back of church with your donation inside. If you do, the church then receives 25p extra for every £1 you donate, at no extra cost to yourself.
